

South Council Grants

Eligibility, Acceptable Use, and Review Process

Eligibility

Grant applications may be submitted by any South Council member in good standing. Good standing is defined as the applicant's business being registered with the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce & South Council. At the time of application, membership must be current. Additional eligibility requirements include:

- 3 month minimum South Council membership required from date of application
- Only one grant application may be submitted per quarter per membership
- Eligible members can apply in each quarter. Limit 1 grant per year per business
- Grants may not be used for travel or accommodations such as rental vehicles, etc.
- Grants may be used for registration costs for work/business related conferences
- Grants cannot be applied for expenses already provided or covered by another source

Acceptable Use

- Conferences, Seminars, Workshops, or other educational activities specifically related to an applicant's South Council registered business or professional career development
- Marketing/advertising your business (i.e. Ads, signage, promotions, marketing materials, etc.)
- Equipment or Technology – hardware or business software
- Finance or Accounting (ex: CPA, QuickBooks software, etc.)

Review Process

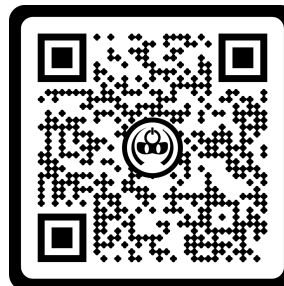

Applications will be reviewed by the South Council Board. Recipients will be judged on the following areas:

- Details of request
- Impact on recipient and/or recipient's business
- Does it help other chamber members (Buy Chamber)
- Involvement in South Council
- Attendance at South Council meetings and events
- Community involvement of the member
- Chamber Involvement of the member
- Charity work within Chamber and community

If awarded a grant, you will be required to submit receipt(s) for proof of purchase to South Council Treasurer.
